Tournament Format

The Tournament consists of two phases: Group Phase and Final Bracket

The format used is the 501 points decreasing with double out closure (Double Out)

Group Phase

In the first phase, there will be 7 groups, named in Italian style, consisting of 5 (five) players each. Each player will play 4 (four) matches in the group phase, meaning they will play against all other 4 (four) opponents.

Each match will consist of 3 legs, and each leg won will earn the player one point. Consequently, each match will end either 3-0 or 2-1.

In the event of a player's withdrawal during a match, the legs played and finished at the time of withdrawal will be considered, and the decisive leg(s) will be awarded by default, pending the Tournament Management's verification of the withdrawal's validity.

Once the matches are completed, a ranking will be established to determine access to the Main and Consolation Brackets of the Final Phase.

Final Bracket Phase

At the end of all group matches, the top 2 (two) players from each group and the 2 (two) best third-place players across all groups, totaling 16 (sixteen) players, will advance to the Main Bracket.

In this phase, players who lose a match can participate in further play-offs for the 5th and 9th places, while a second loss will result in their final elimination from the Tournament.

Other players, ranked from 17th to 32nd, will advance to the Consolation Bracket, and any loss in this phase will result in immediate elimination from the Tournament.

The number of legs to be played per match in this phase will be decided by the Tournament Management at the time of the event.

Consolation Group

Players ranked 33rd, 34th, and 35th will compete in an additional three-player group to determine their final ranking by playing 3 (three) legs per match.

Each leg won will earn one point, determining the final position ranking.

Group Points Calculation

Points are earned as mentioned above, 1 (one) for each leg won.

In case of a tie between two or more players, the following criteria will be used in order:

- For positions 1 to 16:
 - Head-to-head match result
 - If more players are tied, the total number of legs lost
 - If still tied, a throw-off of 6 darts for the highest score
 - If still tied, sudden death
- For positions 17 to 35:
 - Head-to-head match result
 - If more players are tied, the total number of legs lost
 - If still tied, a throw-off of 6 darts for the highest score
 - If still tied, sudden death

Points for Associations/Teams

At the end of all matches, points will be awarded to the various Associations/Teams as follows: 1st Place: 35 points - followed by others decreasing by one point as in the example 2nd Place: 34 ... 3rd Place: 33 ... down to the 35th, which earns 1 point

The points earned will be combined with those from the Women's Tournament

Tournament Format

The Tournament consists of two phases: Group Phase and Final Bracket

The format used is the 501 points decreasing with double out closure (Double Out)

Group Phase

In the first phase, there will be a single group, named in Italian style, consisting of 11 (eleven) players.

Each player will play 10 matches in the group phase, meaning they will play against all other 10 (ten) opponents.

Each match will consist of 2 legs, and each leg won will earn the player one point. Consequently, each match will end either 2-0 or 1-1.

In the event of a player's withdrawal during a match, the legs played and finished at the time of withdrawal will be considered, and the decisive leg(s) will be awarded by default, pending the Tournament Management's verification of the withdrawal's validity.

Once the matches are completed, a ranking will be established to determine access to the Final Brackets.

Final Bracket Phase

At the end of all group matches, the top 4 (four) players will compete in the Semifinals, with the winners advancing to the Final for 1st place, and the losers competing in the Final for 3rd place. Players ranked from 5th to 10th in the group will compete in a consolation bracket for the 5th place, with losers in this phase being definitively eliminated.

The player ranked 11th, and thus last in the group, will be eliminated at the end of the first phase. The number of legs to be played per match in this phase will be decided by the Tournament Management at the time of the event.

Group Points Calculation

Points are earned as mentioned above, 1 (one) for each leg won.

In case of a tie between two or more players, the following criteria will be used in order:

- For positions 1 to 6:
 - Head-to-head match result
 - If more players are tied, the total number of legs lost
 - If still tied, a draw
- For positions 7 to 10:
 - Head-to-head match result
 - Draw
- For the 11th position (eliminated from the Tournament):
 - If tied, a throw-off of 6 darts for the highest score
 - If still tied, sudden death

Points for Associations/Teams

At the end of all matches, points will be awarded to the various Associations/Teams as follows: 1st Place: 11 points - followed by others decreasing by one point as in the example 2nd Place: 10 ... 3rd Place: 9 ... down to the 11th, which earns 1 point

The points earned will be combined with those from the Men's Tournament
