Technical Regulations

Categories: Men's Open

Team Composition: Teams are composed of a maximum of 10 players, including 5 starters (minimum 3) and 5 substitutes.

Substitutions for Each Match: Unlimited substitutions are allowed, including the goalkeeper. Substitutions can be made at any time in the designated area in front of the benches.

Disciplinary Sanctions: A caution during the game results in a 5-minute removal from the field, a second caution leads to expulsion from the field and a one-day suspension. Direct expulsion results in a minimum one-day suspension. For matters not covered by this regulation, the regulations of the European Federation (UEFA) shall apply.

Requirements: Participation is open to all registered team members who have paid the registration fee and submitted a medical declaration of fitness.

Note: The organization reserves the right to change the number of categories based on the number of registered participants.

Format: Participating teams will be divided into elimination groups (depending on the number of participants) to determine the rankings. The top 2 teams in each group will advance to the "A" final to determine the champions, while the other teams ranked third and fourth will play in the "B" final.

Game Times: Two halves of 20 minutes each, with a 5-minute interval between the first and second halves. The pre-match warm-up will last for 10 minutes.

Note: All players must be present on the field at the scheduled start time of the match they are participating in.

Team Presentation on the Field: Teams must be present on the field 15 minutes before the start of the match to facilitate the check of personal identification documents (no play is allowed without proper identification). The team manager must submit the RS (Roster Sheet) form with the list of players participating in the match for each game. If the team is not present on the field at the scheduled start time, they will forfeit the match.

Team Manager: Each team must have a designated team manager, who can also be the coach. The team manager must sign the list of players (Roster Sheet).

Refereeing: All matches will be officiated by one referee accompanied by a field commissioner provided by the organization during the elimination phase, while knockout matches will be officiated by two referees.

Results: Results will be published on the official WCSG website, in the soccer section, and in the respective app.

Complaints: All complaints regarding the conduct of the championship must be submitted in writing to the field commissioner within a maximum of 15 minutes from the conclusion of the match, accompanied by a deposit of €30.00, which will be refunded in case the appeal is accepted.

Final Provisions: Every participant travels and participates in the Games at their own responsibility. The organization provides only first aid. It is mandatory to always carry a copy of your personal insurance policy.

Note: The organization reserves the right to modify and/or change the information contained in this program based on specific and unforeseen needs.
